

Alexandria National Refining & Petrochemicals Co. (ANRPC)

ANRPC is an Egyptian shareholding company established on 1999 for more production of the free of additives, high-octane gasoline, And according to the country's directions to protect the environment. In addition to cover the growing local market demand. Moreover, to export the excess. Achieving the horizontal integration between the refineries and petroleum and petrochemical industries, both basic and specialized, and to increase the added value.

The refinery is located in Ameria region, the west of Alexandria City on the Mediterranean Sea.

ANRPC Main Units

Reforming (CCR) and Isomerization Complex:

The complex was commissioned with capacity of 0.8 MMTY, it processes low octane heavy and light naphtha to produce high octane gasoline.

Products: LPG, Isomerate and reformat.

Main Units at ANRPC Refinery

Unit	No. Of Units	Capacity (MMTY)	Licensor
CCR and Isomerization Complex	1	0.8	UOP

New Projects

Unit	No. Of Units	Capacity (MMTY)	Licensor
CCR Project	1	0.55	UOP